

You can now reach your owners, renters and realtors with simple text messages!

- Send text reminders and important alerts to any group with a click of the mouse.
- Take advantage of the popularity and convenience of texting to streamline your outbound communications.
- Make it easy for residents to join your text system through your CondoSites website or by sharing your custom keyword.

ONE LITTLE TEXT...GREAT BIG RESULTS!

Email can't compete with texts.

Over 98% of texts get read!

Over 93% of texts get read within 3 minutes or less!

All text plans enable you to...

- Send maintenance reminders and important news instantly
- Send links to documents or videos that get noticed
- Create keywords like "ISSUE" that people can use to alert management
- Send a poll to owners, renters, or realtors for instant feedback
- Text your staff and vendors and simplify your internal communications
- Allow users to sign up for texts through your CondoSites website
- Keep your own cell number private —and never share it again
- Simplify things for the board and management
